The screenshot displays the TRENDYY user interface. On the left is a dark sidebar with a navigation menu containing: Display, Assets, Layouts, Push, Integrations, Reports, My Subscriptions, Settings (highlighted in red), and Log out. The main content area is titled 'Settings' and has a 'Default Content' dropdown menu in the top right corner. Below the title, the 'Default Content' section features a preview of a digital signage composition. The preview shows a dark background with the TRENDYY logo, the text 'DIGITAL SIGNAGE', and abstract geometric shapes in shades of purple and pink. To the right of the preview, the text reads: 'Organisation Default Composition', 'The composition will be applied to all newly added displays in the organization', 'Default Composition: Default Comp' (with an edit icon), and 'Duration: 10 seconds'.
